Incident Location: 12700 Block of Dale Street
Time: 5:52 a.m.

EARLY MORNING FIRE DESTROYS HOME

Fire fighters responded to the 12700 block of Dale Street shortly before 6:00 a.m. this morning for a residential structure fire. The first-arriving unit found a single story house with fire showing. The crew initiated an attack of the fire and confirmed all residents were out. The fire was declared knocked down in approximately 30 minutes. There was no report of injury to the residents or fire fighters.

A family of four, including two adults and two children were displaced as a result of the fire. The Red Cross was requested to provide assistance. Damage to the house was significant, with structural loss estimated at $250,000 and $50,000 to contents. The cause of the fire is under investigation.
