NARRATIVE: Garden Grove Fire along with Anaheim and Orange crews responded to the 12000 block of Anzio Street for a residential structure fire at 12:18 a.m. this morning. Firefighters found a well-involved garage fire on arrival. Due to a rapid fire attack, the fire was confined to the garage. It took firefighters approximately 25 minutes to knock down the fire. It was estimated that there was $50,000 damage to the structure, and $10,000 to the contents.

Residents were awoken by an operating smoke alarm, and self-evacuated. The Red Cross was requested to respond to assist with five adults and two children displaced. There were no reported injury, and the cause of the fire is currently under investigation.
