FIRE FIGHTERS DONATE TO HELP BURN SURVIVORS

The Garden Grove Fire Department and Fire Fighters Association participated in this year's annual Fire Fighter's Quest for Burn Survivors rally this morning. The rally made up of agencies from participating fire departments are making multiple stops at fire stations, including Garden Grove. During the stop at fire department headquarters, the Fire Fighters Association presented a donation of over $500 to the Quest. Fire chief, Tom Schultz was on hand and said, "Burn injuries are life-altering, and we are honored to be able to help this important and worthy cause." A caravan of fire department units will be travelling throughout Orange County today to raise awareness and funds for the effort.

The Fire Fighter's Quest for Burn Survivors is a non-profit organization managed by fire fighters and volunteers. Their mission is to raise awareness of the devastating effects of burns, and to assist survivors and their families and burn centers.
