Incident Location: 12400 Block of Euclid Street
Time: 9:57 p.m.

FIRE DISPLACES SIX PEOPLE

The fire department responded to the 12400 block of Euclid Street before 10:00 p.m. for a structure fire at a Buddhist temple and housing facility. The first arriving unit found smoke showing, and initiated an attack on the fire. It took fire fighters approximately 10 minutes to knock down the fire. There were six adults displaced by the fire, and all of them were able to get out without injury. Red Cross volunteers responded to assist the residents. Damage to the structure is estimated at $200,000 and $25,000 to contents. The cause of the fire is under investigation.
