NARRATIVE:

On October 27, 2018 at 1040am GGPD officers investigated an attempted homicide at the McDonald's restaurant located at 13971 Harbor Blvd. An 89-year-old male was attacked and stabbed in the restroom by an unknown suspect. The attempted murder was unprovoked and the motive is unknown.

As the victim was washing his hands, the suspect attacked the victim from behind, striking him in the head and stabbing him multiple times with a knife. The suspect did not say anything during the attack and did not rob the victim.

The suspect ran westbound and ended up at the Angelo's restaurant about a half mile away. The suspect asked a customer who was in the lot for a ride out of the area. We are looking for the driver/owner of the red Toyota pick-up truck who gave the suspect a ride.

The victim survived his injuries and is still in the hospital. Anyone with information on the suspect or the driver of the red Toyota pick-up is asked to call GGPD at 714-741-5818.
