Officers responded to the above area reference a subject making derogatory comments to the reporting party. The victim believed someone had thrown a rock or other object at her vehicle while she was sitting in the car reading a book. She exited her car to ask a group that was near her location about the incident and was met with derogatory comments by them. The victim's friend was nearby and walked over to inquire about what was occurring at which time the group left the area. Officers were unable to locate the other party while on scene. No damage was done to the victim's vehicle and it was unknown what item struck it.
